Inspired by the beautiful film, The Way, by Martin Sheen and Emilio Estevez, Fr. Mark and fellow pilgrims followed in the footsteps of millions who have journeyed to what has been revered as the tomb of St. James the Apostle. The presentation will include a visual component and will take place in the Fellowship Hall. Child care will be provided.

Faithful Citizenship: A Catholic Call to Political Responsibility

In the heart of this election season, please join us in the Fellowship Hall on Sunday evening, October 23, from 7-8:30 p.m. for a presentation on forming our consciences as responsible citizens. Fr. Mark Beckman will be providing an overview of the fundamental principles that help Catholics form consciences in contributing to the good of our country. The presentation will be grounded in the teaching of Catholic Church as it has been expressed over the past century, including Pope Francis' recent address to the Congress, as well as the Bishops of our own nation in recent years. Child care will be provided.
